When Harm Occurs: Becoming a Trauma-Responsive Community

A free virtual event with Myrna McCallum

- Better understand how trauma affects behaviour
- Recognize that people may not always respond “well” when they are hurting
- Avoid responding to poor behaviour with poor behaviour
- Reduce and mitigate harm to those impacted by trauma
- Strengthen community responses that promote safety, dignity, accountability, and healing

Wed. October 21, 7:00-9:00pm

PRESENTED BY: Perth and District Community Foundation · Lanark County Community Justice — Building Stronger Relationships Through Restorative Practices

WITH FUNDING THANKS TO:

Life can be difficult and bad things happen.

Together, we can work to strengthen community responses that promote safety, dignity, accountability and healing.

When Harm Occurs: Becoming a Trauma-Responsive Community

A presentation by Myrna McCallum.

Wed. Oct 21
from 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Free Virtual Event. Register Online.

PRESENTED BY: Perth and District Community Foundation · Lanark County Community Justice — Building Stronger Relationships Through Restorative Practices

WITH FUNDING THANKS TO:

Discussion Questions

1. How did this talk impact you? What did you learn?
   Think about head = ideas, heart = emotions, and hands = skills
2. What will you keep doing, stop doing, and do differently?
3. What are your ideas about how we can become a trauma-responsive community?